

1. COMMERCIAL PRICE LIST OR PRICING AGREEMENTS (Clause B-13.1) (June 2023)

Seller shall provide a copy of the commercial price list for all items. In the performance of the prime contract referenced in Section G below, Honeywell Federal Manufacturing & Technologies, LLC is eligible to procure under GSA contracts, and may be eligible to procure under other contracts your company may have in place, such as corporate agreements, Basic Ordering Agreements, or other Department of Energy related agreements. If the proposed item is available on any of these types of contracts, the Seller shall provide detailed information.

Price List:

The proposal shall include a copy of the current price list relevant to the proposed items with the items and prices highlighted. If a price list is not available, please provide any other documentation/data which supports your pricing. You may also include price history for similar equipment your firm has provided to other customers, including any agency of the U.S. Government.

Price Support Information:

To support the Buyer's cost evaluation, the proposer shall submit the following pricing information, if applicable, for the requested item/service:

1. Redacted Invoices
2. GSA Pricing
3. Honeywell Corporate Agreement Pricing
4. Any other special pricing available to the Buyer

 5. Statement confirming, "The quoted prices are the same as those quoted to their most favored customer in the same quantity and under the same conditions." Buyer reserves the right to request additional documentation to support price analysis as required to meet FAR requirements.
