

1. COMMERCIAL PRICE LIST OR PRICING AGREEMENTS (Clause B-13.1) (June 2025)

In the performance of the prime contract referenced in Section G below, Buyer is eligible to procure under GSA contracts and may be eligible to procure under other contracts your company may have in place, such as Honeywell Corporate agreements, Basic Ordering Agreements, or other Department of Energy related agreements. If the proposed items are available on any of these types of contracts, the Seller shall provide a copy of the commercial price list for all items.

Price List:

The proposal shall include a copy of the current price list, e.g., GSA price schedule, relevant to the proposed items with the items and prices highlighted. If a price list is not available, Seller shall provide documentation supporting Seller's proposed pricing as outlined below.

Price Support Information:

To support the Buyer's price evaluation, Seller shall submit the following pricing information, if applicable, for the requested item/service:

1. Redacted Invoices
2. GSA Pricing
3. Honeywell Corporate agreement pricing
4. Any other special pricing available to the Buyer
5. Optional unless otherwise requested by Buyer - price history for similar items Seller has provided to other customers, including any agency of the U.S. Government
6. Statement confirming, "The quoted prices are the same as those quoted to Seller's most favored customer in the same quantity and under the same conditions." Buyer reserves the right to request additional documentation to support price analysis as required to meet FAR requirements.
